Guest Speaker

Roberta Jamieson, CEO, National Aboriginal Achievement Foundation

Since 2004, Ms. Jamieson has been at the helm of the NAAF, encouraging and empowering Aboriginal youth to achieve their educational and career aspirations. Ms. Jamieson is an inspiration. She has accomplished many "firsts", as the first Aboriginal woman to attain a law degree, founder of the Native Law Students Association of Canada, and first woman to be appointed Ombudsman in Ontario. She has received many awards and recognitions for her contributions and is a member of the Order of Canada.
